

THE CASE OF

The Lady Mulledy.

THE Lady Alice Mulledy, Relict and Widow of Sir Anthony Mulledy, humbly represents, That her Husband's Estate in the Kingdom of Ireland, Forfeited on Account of the late Rebellion, being worth above One Thousand Pounds per Annum, and so returned by the late Commissioners, was some Years since granted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Rumney; who, out of his great Goodness, was pleased to give her a Yearly Sum for the Support of Her, and Two small Children by the said Sir Anthony, having nothing else to subsist them. She therefore most humbly begs, That this Honourable House will, out of their great Compassion and tender Regard to a Widow and Two poor Orphans, order some Yearly Sum out of the said Estate for their Support; otherwise they must inevitably Perish.

1699

THE CASE
OF THE
Lady Mulledy.

441499

E

S

J H T